DECEMBER 24, 2021

Assalamu 'alaikum (peace be upon you) dear family and friends of Islamic Society of Santa Barbara. We are pleased to bring you this week's updates regarding our community.

HIGHLIGHTS OF WEEK

Only one more week left of the year 2021. Many schools are closed for the holidays. The nights are long and many of our neighbors' and friends' homes are sparkling with festivities. And we are almost done with the year of vaccination rollouts for adults and children >5 years old, and the start of boosters against COVID19 for the general public.

This week, we participated in the janaza of Hajj Salem Kamel Alshurafa, who was the father of our former board member - Naela Alshurafa. We pray that Allah forgives his sins, accepts his deeds and multiplies them by His boundless generosity and admits him amongst the righteous and successful. And may Allah extend His rahmah upon his family and make these difficult times easier.

We also participated in the December Book Club organized by Fara Edayu. We had an exciting discussion about "Rich Dad Poor Dad" by Robert Kiyosaki, over delicious munchies and chai. We look forward to the next meeting in January.

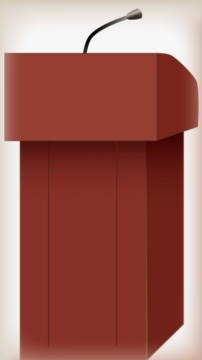

This edition, look out for information on upcoming khutbah topic, prayer schedule and new events.

IMAM'S CORNER

Khutba Topic (Dec 24, 2021): The Virtues of Dua' (Supplication)

In the Qur'an, Allah says, "And your Lord says, "Call upon Me; I will respond to you." Indeed, those who disdain My worship will enter Hell [rendered] contemptible." (40:60)
(Sahih International translation).

The Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him) Says, "Dua' is the core of worship"
(Narrated in Musnad Ahmad).
